Framework | Relationship between AMI and the local NGO Hope of Mother

The partnership between AMI and Hope Of Mother began in 2006. Various projects have since been supported:

- Construction of Shawl Patcha School (opened in August 2007). It is the first school in the region to integrate girls. It has eight class rooms and a capacity for 640 students.
- Construction of Lily's Medical Clinic (opened in 2008). The clinic is currently active and led by a resident MD. Medical supplies and medicines are donated to HOM by local NGO's. In addition to basic health care services, prenatal and postnatal care are also provided.
- Vocational Training Center (opened in 2009).
